full-time childcare places and 20 staff jobs.

Kate Atkins, chief executive of The Great North Wood Education Trust and headteacher of Rosendale Primary School in West Norwood, received a £36k pay rise and a £12k lump sum for 17 months' backdated pay in October last year, despite ordering a Children's Centre and Nursery under her management to close just months later due to a lack of funds.

Its accounts say her salary is in total £114,000. One parent said: "We find the most shocking part being the 18 months' backdated increased pay – from March 2017 to October 2018 – at a time when the trust knows
